

Each step against the wind in this twisting pass requires significant effort.

Put a 341 card or a 319 card into play in the space shown (unless it is already there). Each involved character moves their figure onto it.

You are haggard and worn with fatigue when you finally emerge from the canyon.
